PAMIDA DONATES TO BIG BROTHERS BIG SISTERS OF NORTHWEST
WYOMING AND SHACK YOUTH CENTER TO FURTHER EDUCATE YOUTH IN THE COMMUNITY

Pamida opens new store in Greybull, Wyoming

Omaha, NE, April 27, 2009 – Pamida today announces donations totaling $2,000 to Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northwest Wyoming and The Shack Youth Center of Greybull, Wyoming. The retailer opened a new location in Greybull on Friday, April 24 and announced its commitment to Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northwest Wyoming and The Shack Youth Center during the Grand Opening celebration. The funds donated to these organizations will be used to further educate youth in the community as well as build a strong foundation for a partnership between Pamida and both organizations.

“We are very excited about becoming a part of Greybull’s community and to begin our partnership with Big Brothers Big Sisters and The Shack,” said Laurie Wharton, senior vice president of marketing of Pamida and president of Pamida Foundation. “Every day both of these organizations exemplify Pamida’s mission by promoting the well-being of our communities’ citizens and youth.”

The Pamida Foundation is able to support more than 500 charitable organizations in their communities that focus on education, health and social services. In 2008, Pamida donated over $700,000 to these organizations that improve the lives of the citizens in their communities.

"We look forward to growing our partnership with these organizations and are committed to making a difference in the Greybull community through our donation efforts," said Jessica Strohman, executive director of Pamida Foundation.
